Has Married King's Counselor.

The following from the Cleveland Press will be read with interest by Canfield people having pleasant recollections of Mrs. Truesdale, who is the widow of Prof. W. J. Truesdale, son of the late Dr. J. Truesdale, who died in Canfield of tuberculosis eight or nine years ago.

John T. Small, K. C. of Toronto, and Mrs. Maude Orton Truesdale of 2271 E. 46th street, will be married at noon Tuesday at Trinity cathedral by Dean du Moulin. There will be a wedding breakfast at the Euclid club.

Mr. and Mrs. Small will leave at once for London to be present at the coronation. After that they will tour Russia and make a motor trip to the Black sea.

Mrs. Truesdale is a former East High teacher. One summer she went to Georgian bay as the official hostess for the Minnecog hotel. A lake liner docked at Minnecog. One of the passengers was Small, king's counselor, millionaire of Toronto.

He was weary of his briefs, and he had antipathies of a career, but not especially eventful vacation. With the first greeting of the charming "official hostess, the king's lawyer decided he liked the place. Other guests came and went but Mr. Small prolonged his vacation.

He had found a new interest in Minnecog that had not been advertised in the folders.

Fine Time at North Jackson.

The Niles News says: Niles Knights of Pythias have long been constant attendants at all social and initiatory events given by their North Jackson brothers and the members that accepted their invitation to attend Friday evening loudly praise their hospitality. The trip was made in automobiles. Upon arriving at K. of P. headquarters they found a large crowd waiting and the degree work was commenced. A class of fourteen candidates received the Page, Esquire and Knight Ranks, the initiatory exercises being conducted by the team of Niles Lodge, 138.

Between the second and third degrees a banquet was given and the committee in charge are to be complimented for the excellent menu. At the conclusion of the third degree a social session was held which was immensely enjoyed by all present. It was 2:30 before the Nilesites arrived home some of the party not reaching here until 6 on account of a break down on the road. The members who went out on the train last evening returned at 6:30 this morning and all report the gathering one of the most enjoyable they ever attended and are ever willing to respond to an invitation from North Jackson.

TOO TRUE.

A newspaper has innumerable opportunities to boost and extend courtesies of various kinds to people and is generally willing to do so. In doing these things it does not often expect direct pay. But there are people who will accept boosts, and favors from a paper, and then when an opportunity comes to reciprocate they forget all about them and give it the cold shoulder. For this kind of people the newspaper has a good memory. The friendship of a newspaper is worth something, for the newspaper always returns more boosting than it receives. No man lives who does not at some time ask for and receive favors from a newspaper. Then is when the editor's memory comes to his aid.—Climarron (Kan.) Jacksonian.

Brain Leads.

You can't always judge the weight of the fish by the heft of the nibble. A lot of people have worried themselves to death over things that never happened.

The man who is looking for a bright boy to employ never calls around the pool halls.

A lot of people waste time praying for things they are expected to hustle out and get for themselves.

If all the things we plan for tomorrow had been accomplished yesterday there would be very little left to do.

The average woman's idea of a good neighbor is one who always brings back considerably more than she borrowed.

The time of year is at hand when all of us men who work would give a lot if we could keep as cool as the average woman looks.—Commoner.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ## PLEADS GUILTY TO HAVING RECEIVED BRIBE

EVANS CONFESSES BRIBE, FINED $500

OHIO LAWMAKER ADMITS TAKING $100 TO OPPOSE LOAN AGENCY BILL.

NEW ARRESTS ARE NOW EXPECTED

Revelations Made Likely to Bring Indictment of Men Hitherto Not Suspected or Thought Out of Reach.

Columbus, O.—Representative Owen J. Evans of Stark county has confessed that he had taken a bribe of $100 in connection with the salary loan shark bill. He paid a fine of $500, then went before the grand jury and, according to apparently authentic reports, told all that he knew regarding legislative bribery. Details believed to have been given the investigating body by Evans are expected to result in many new indictments, some against persons not hitherto suspected or else believed to be out of reach of inconvertible evidence. With the confessions of Evans and House Clerk Charles W. Kempel, the real sensations in the mess of legislative rottenness are in sight. This is the confident prediction of states attorneys and the fear of some members of the general assembly as well as the lobbyists who have dealt with such legislators. Additional confessions are but a matter of days, possibly hours, Kempel secured immunity. Evans was granted virtual immunity, although the fine of $500 was imposed and paid. By pleading guilty Evans forfeited for life his right to hold office in Ohio and automatically removes himself from his seat in the house.

The Evans confession followed a conference between Prosecuting Attorney E. C. Turner and Attorney Clark. That negotiations were in progress was concealed until Evans appeared in court. The outcome was the direct result of Kempel's testimony. Evans and his attorneys were prepared to fight the Weiss case, but there was no escape from the salary loan bill transactions. The entire confession of the first lawmaker deciding to turn state's evidence was made only before the grand jury and is not yet completed. Every particle of information given has been carefully guarded. It probably will not be revealed until the jury makes its next report. Evans was one of the majority members of the first house steering committee, appointed by Speaker S. J. Vining. It had absolute power over the order in which bills were considered. When a measure could not pass muster in this committee, it had no chance, except to remain buried in the long calendar, where it would die with adjournment. This committee had been at work only a few days when it aroused a storm which gathered force until the members virtually were forced to resign. Many charges were made that money was the chief consideration with certain members of the committee. The payment by Miller to Evans is understood to have been made because Evans was a member of the steering committee. The Stark county man is said to have knowledge of the acts of this committee, which information he is passing along to the grand jury.

TAKES RACE PREJUDICE.

Washington.—President Taft created a sensation in army circles when he caused to be made public his caustic reprimand of Colonel Joseph Garrard, commanding the cavalry post at Fort Myers, Va. Colonel Garrard had reported adversely upon the application of Frank Bloom, a Jewish private, for the right to take examinations for promotion to the commissioned grade.

Colonel Garrard in his report stated: "The young man is undoubtedly honest and upright, but for the reason stated (his Jewish origin) I would not desire him in my command as an officer and a soldier."

JUBILEE OF GIBBONS

LEADING MEN OF THE NATION JOIN IN CELEBRATION.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Prelate's Ordination and Twenty-fifth of His Elevation to the Cardinalate.

Baltimore, Md.—Seldom in the ecclesiastical history of the United States has such a whole-souled and hearty co-operation, irrespective of sect or creed, been in evidence as that which made possible the notable gathering of prominent men that assembled June 6 in the Fifth Regiment armory to pay homage to America's only Prince of the Church, James Cardinal Gibbons, in commemoration of the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood and the silver jubilee of his cardinalate. This event stands unique not only because it is the greatest public celebration ever tendered a member of the American clergy, but because of the widespread non-sectarian interest shown and the hearty friendliness and reverence of men whose religious opinions conflict with the faith of his semine.

The exercises began at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and were attended by many men famous in the current history of the United States. Among these distinguished persons were President Taft, ex-President Roosevelt, Speaker Champ Clark, ex-Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Chief Justice White, of the supreme court, and a host of leading clergymen of the Catholic and other denominations.

James Gibbons was born in Baltimore on July 29, 1814. In childhood he was taken to Ireland by his parents, where he remained until he was 17. Returning to Baltimore, he determined to devote his life to the priesthood and entered the seminary to prepare for the work. He was ordained at the age of 27. When but 34 years old he was appointed vicar apostolic of North Carolina with the rank and title of bishop. In 1872 he was sent to the important see of Richmond, and five years later, upon application of the people and of Archbishop Bayley, whose health was failing, he was made bishop coadjutor in the primary see of Baltimore, with the right of succession. The bishop coadjutor became archbishop primate in 1877, attaining the highest dignity in the American church at the age of 63. In 1886 he was made a cardinal.

social and personal associate. From an experience of many years standing, I have found, except in few cases, few communities where Jews are received as desirable acquaintances."

President Taft in his letter to the secretary of war, ordering the reprimand, says: "It is difficult for me to read the report of Colonel Garrard with patience and without condemnation. The statements made by Colonel Garrard are not true with reference to the standing that Jews have in this country, and I regret, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, that any officer of either should permit himself in an official document to give evidence of such unfounded and narrow race prejudice."

How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, O., says: "I had kidney and bladder trouble for some time and though I received some results from other kidney pills yet they did not cure me as Foley Pills have done. The first few doses relieved me and after using three or four bottles I am entirely over all my kidney and bladder trouble. Foley Kidney Pills were the means of restoring my kidneys to their normal condition and I can highly recommend them." F. A. Morris.

Effects of Eye Strain

Just what effect Eye-Nerve-Strain will produce in any given case depends not only on the intensity of the strain, but on other circumstances as well. An individual with a vigorous Nervous System might easily tolerate an amount of strain that would be impossible for another with less resisting power. Age, sex, habits, occupation, etc., also help to determine what the effect will be.

The Eyes, themselves, may be the principal sufferers. In such instances vision may be impaired—fatigue and discomfort may result from reading, sewing, or close work of any kind, or it may exhibit in the form of stomach trouble, headache, constipation, insomnia, liver or kidney troubles, and in women female troubles.

If your eye or Nerves are troubling you, by all means attend to them. This is a big city and my capacity is limited; much as I would like I cannot take care of all—but those of you who want good service, I would be pleased to consult with.
